4. Delegation/guests: Town CAO John Sisson attended to speak to the confidential memo (sent to all Board members) and answer any questions in regards to that, and to acknowledge C. Rodney's assistance to the Town management team in their ongoing work to address the COVID-19 situation.

5. New Business:

5.1 Financial effect on Library budget due to COVID-19

A document was circulated to all Board members before the meeting. In order for the Town to have an idea of its financial situation for the overall budget, the Town Treasurer has requested that all departments take note of areas in the budget where there could be some potential for savings by deferring or cancelling some things from the budget. C. Rodney addressed ways the Library could save money.
